

Accompanying Persons Programme

Monday 19th August 2002

those designer labels or stop for a coffee in the fashionable and chic Salford Quays Retail Park.

If you don't have a passion for shopping then visit the newly opened Imperial War Museum, situated on the banks of the Manchester Ship Canal. The museum offers thought-provoking displays and collections to gain a greater understanding of the enormous impact of war on the twentieth and twenty-first centuries.

Cost £18 per person

The Lowry and Imperial War Museum, Salford Quays

The Lowry is a stunning example of 21st century architecture and one of Manchester's most spectacular Land marks.

The morning will include a welcome talk and the opportunity to view the exhibition galleries, which include the works of L. S Lowry alongside major European and International artists.

A buffet style lunch will be served at the Lowry.

Tuesday 20th August 2002 The Lake District, Cruise of Lake Windermere

Homes of Beatrix Potter and William Wordsworth, you will find the Lake District a most enchanting place.

Arriving at Lakeside you will be taken on a spectacular voyage by a traditional "steamer" across one of England's largest lakes, Lake Windermere.

First stop will be at the quaint village of Bowness, providing you with the opportunity to explore the village and visit some of the beautiful art and craft shops.

A 3 course lunch will be served at the Burnside Hotel, set in mature gardens with breath-taking scenery over the lake.

Once back on the steamer, you will be taken on a short trip to Ambleside where you will be able to stroll amongst the beautiful English countryside or enjoy a pot of tea in one of the many cafes.

Cost £40 per person
