Prior to final acceptance and following receipt of an invoice from the iNEER Secretariat, we are prepared to pay page charges at US$90 per page in accordance with Paragraph 9.3 of the Guidelines. We understand that, to ensure a uniform standard and appearance, the iNEER Board of Editors will be responsible for final formatting, from which the final page count will be determined. We also understand that, if the paper is not accepted by the Board of Editors, page charges will be refunded in full less a small processing fee. If the paper is withdrawn by the authors after the reviews are sent to them to revise the paper, or, if the authors do not revise the paper and there is no reasoned rebuttal, page charges will be refunded minus a processing fee equal to 25% of the page charges received, less the costs of credit card fees or bank transfer fees incurred by iNEER, if credit card or bank transfer is used for payment of page charges. Each refund will be made in the form of an iNEER check drawn on a U.S. bank.
