Welcome Remarks, ICEE-1999
VSB-Technical U. of Ostrava, August 1999

*“.....it is engineers who create values
and know better than anyone else that,
most of all, the present global world
requires calm and peaceful development”*

“They know that the best way of preventing tension is to improve education, and technical and economical level in problematic parts of the world.

“This is what I consider to be the main task of universities after the year 2000”

“I wish you an enjoyable, pleasant and useful stay in our country.”

“Our hearts are open for you”
